

COAN, PAYTON & PAYNE, LLC

Bob Choate, Attorney at Law

Bob Choate works primarily out of the Fort Collins office, but he has deep ties to Greeley and all of Northern Colorado. His practice is focused on real estate development and associated business transactions. Prior to joining Coan, Payton & Payne, Mr. Choate spent many years as corporate counsel for local governmental entities in northern Colorado, and has extensive experience navigating the permitting processes necessary to acquire and protect vested development rights in most every jurisdiction on the north front range. He has a successful track record of obtaining development approvals.

Mr. Choate received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Oklahoma College of Law, and his Bachelors of Science from the University of Texas at Austin College of Communication. A dedicated community volunteer, he previously served for six years on the Larimer County Planning Commission, which regulates land use and subdivisions in the unincorporated area of the County. He is also a current member of the board of directors for Loveland Habitat for Humanity, and a volunteer and prior trustee for the Overland Mountain Bike Association, a local nonprofit dedicated to public lands and trail development.
